In 1871 he was married to Loretta Andrews, of Hebron, and four children were born to bless their union, namely: Arthur L., who died in December, 1925; Annie L., R. Eugene, and Agnes. In July, 1914, his wife died and since then he made his home in Bolster's Mills until June, 1924, when he went to Cornish, and made his home with his daughter, Annie, with whom he lived at the time of his death.

Mr. Pinkham was a man of superior intelligence, was a profound reader and had held many positions of trust and responsibility, both public and private, and in which the utmost confidence was reposed because of his honesty and reliability.

He was a life long Republican in politics, and for years took an active part in public matters of town, county and state. He was a worthy member of Crooked River Grange at Bolster's Mills and served several terms as its Master, and had also acquired every degree within the gift of that order.

He has been a faithful subscriber and reader of the Portland Press, under its different titles.

His funeral service was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Annie Pinkham Cook, in Cornish, Friday, at 1:30 p. m., and burial was in Riverside Cemetery of that town.

A WARNING AND TRUE INFORMATION FOR YOU

Do your Christmas cards reflect your own choice, or do you allow someone else to select them and send them to you in the form of an inferior box assortment of "canned" thoughts?

Why buy something you did not order and which isn't as good as what you can secure for the same price in a reputable store?

You do not have to pay for unordered cards, neither do you have to return them, even though postage is inclosed—unless you want to. The Post Office ruling is that you may hold such merchandise until the owner calls for it! You can even charge storage if you desire!

May we suggest that next time a box of cards is presented by the postman, that you refuse to accept it. This nuisance should be stopped and you can help do it, by taking this stand.

Remember, your dealer can more than meet the value and YOU MAY MAKE YOUR OWN SELECTION of what YOU WANT.

Buy your Christmas Cards EARLY from your own dealer and secure satisfaction, quality merchandise and cards that will do you honor and reflect your own personality.

Christmas Seal Sale

The annual Christmas Seal Sale was launched Friday, November 28th. The sale will be conducted through the mail, as in the past two years. There will be no house to house canvass, and as it is impossible to reach everyone through the mailing list, there will be seals at several of the stores, where they can be secured. Everyone likes to place one of these little seals on their Christmas cards and postages, and by so doing they are helping in the campaign for better health. These tiny seals, sold for one cent each, have made possible an organized campaign against tuberculosis that has been carried on with ever increasing emphasis year after year. But they stand for something more, for they are truly health seals since whatever helps to prevent tuberculosis makes for better health. The accumulated pennies provide nurses for a vast number of communities, clinics, promote open air schools, etc.

The Christmas Seal idea dates back to 1903 when a Danish postal clerk interested his government in the idea of a sale of stamps at Christmas time to build a hospital for tubercular children. From the first such stamp has had a double value. They have been effective as a means of money raising and they have been a potent vehicle for the spread of health education. We all know the story of Emily Bissell, of Wilmington, Delaware, and Paris Hill, who read the story in the "Outlook" about the Danish seal, which inspired her to adopt the idea for the benefit of a small tuberculosis hospital which was in sore need of funds, and $3,000 was raised that year. From then on, the Christmas seal rapidly became a national enterprise and since 1910 has been under the management of the National Tuberculosis Association. In addition to an attractive design appropriate to the Christmas season, the stamp bears the double-barred cross of Lorraine, which is the emblem of the tuberculosis movement. From the Association's small work in 1907, the need for a larger income has grown until this year it will be necessary to print several millions to finance the work. The seal this year is very attractive. Santa Claus with a pine tree over his shoulder.

The Seal Sale in Maine is sponsored by the Maine Public Health Association under which the Norway Nursing Service has been conducted. Eighty percent of the seal sale money will remain with the local nursing service to help in the work of "Health to All."

UNIVERSAL BIBLE SUNDAY

Governor W. T. Gardner urges the observance next Sunday, December 7, of Universal Bible Sunday in the churches throughout Maine. The American Bible Society, an organization which issues annually over eleven million copies of Bibles, Testaments, and Portions in close to two hundred languages, has been sponsoring Universal Bible Sunday over a period of years. The thousands of churches throughout the United States as well as many Christian churches abroad join in this movement which was conceived and is promoted to emphasize the essential position which the Bible occupies in the spiritual life of men and women.

In endorsing Universal Bible Sunday, Governor Gardner says: "The annual observance of Universal Bible Sunday is again called to our attention and we may fittingly give thought to this occasion. As a people, we recognize the place of the Bible, both in our homes and in our work. We may well emphasize the lessons to be gained from its study and the aid which it has given mankind."

From the Piscataquis Observer
Something over a year ago a circular letter came to me (Mr. P. Evans) from Page & Shaw of Boston, offering a two-pound box of chocolates and a dollar share of stock for two dollars. The reputation the company had for manufacturing goods made the proposition safe, and I sent the share of stock, and I invested.

I had wondered what was behind the scheme and later an explanation was given.
The so-called Blue Sky law in Maine requires a security salesman to have a license before operating in the State, but he can sell a stock to a person already holding some of it, and so the shares of stock were scattered through Maine and other New England states by the Page & Shaw company for a future purpose.

In due time three men appeared at the office to sell me an unlimited number of shares of stock, representing that it would pay, as it had been doing, a dividend of eight per cent. But I was cold and the men departed, saying they would call again, but they did not. I do not know how much stock they sold in this county, but some. No dividend was paid on my share and I heard of a man who received a two cent stamp as dividend on his share.

The reputation of Page & Shaw was so good that $2,000 of the stock was sold in New England, but as the promised dividend was not paid, complaints were made with the result that 17 persons were indicted on the charge of conspiracy to steal in connection with the stock issue.

They included Otis E. Dunham, president of Page & Shaw, Raymond E. Holland, a former vice president, Isaac Hart and Joseph Pollay, the brokers who floated the stock, and 11 salesmen.

After a trial lasting nearly six weeks,
Dunham, Hart and Pollay were found guilty of conspiracy to steal in connection with the stock issue and were sentenced to two years each in the house of correction. In addition to the time they must serve in prison, Hart and Pollay were fined $5,000 each, and Dunham $1,000.

Holland and seven stock salesmen were found not guilty, but each had pled guilty, but their cases were continued.
Much of the $2,000,000 of stock was sold to people not able to lose their investment. It developed during the trial that the management was that the brokers were to have 50 per cent of the amount received for the stock but it was also stated that no part of it reached the Page &
Shaw treasury.

We know of several of our readers who invested. One put in a sizeable amount and lost, and mourned over it.

The Blue Sky law of Maine in this instance assisted the swindlers.

RETURNED TO JAIL RATHER THAN STAY

John P. Degress, 26, one of five prisoners who escaped at the county jail three months ago, surrendered himself Friday at Rumford. He appeared weary and seemed glad to return after his long journey. Degress is reported to have told Chief of Police Gentry at Rumford that he had been in Canada without a job and voluntarily surrendered rather than starve.

Three of the other prisoners who escaped by sawing bars from a rear window and scaling a high iron fence, have been recaptured.

SPIRITUAL GATHERINGS

The circles are a success and meetings are held every Wednesday evening at Mrs. Pierson's. The developing circle was omitted the night before Thanksgiving, but was resumed last Wednesday evening, with a good number remaining for instruction. The circle has been invited to Waterford some night and plans are being made to follow up the kind invitation. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Clement and O. S. Montphier are still in charge of the circles.

STOW CHALK MARK OBEDIENCE

Chas. O. Barrows, tax collector, Paris, tells of a house in Stow in which two families lived. There were three rooms on the ground floor. Each of the families had nine children. A chalk mark on the floor of the living room designated the ownership of each. At times the children were not allowed to cross the mark and thus early in life learned to obey their parents.

Enacted Christmas Legend

The Christian Endeavor Society enacted a Christmas pageant in the Congregational church, Sunday evening, entitled, "The Legend of the Star" by Douglas Horton. Particular attention was given to the setting and costumes and the story lesson of doing the small things near at hand was clearly brought out. Those having a part were Isabelle Fleming, Raymond Brown, Esther and Linda Cummings, John Colby and Theodore Chandler.

The musical part was given by Mrs. Ida Neal, organist; Miss Dorothy Deane, violinist; vocalists, Mrs. Esther Tower Anderson and Miss Kathryn Green, and the chorus, Janette Goldsmith, Barbara Colby, Charlotte Osvelt, Winona Oliver, Cheryl Eastman and Marguerite Shaw. Members of the other denominations in town were invited guests.

Nelson Haskell, a student in Boston, spent Thanksgiving and several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Haskell.

Ted Nutting was home from the University of Maine for Thanksgiving. Ice formed on the cove below Park street bridge, Thursday and Friday, and a handful of daring skaters took a chance. The rain Sunday upset that sport for a time.

Schools reopened Monday morning after a recess beginning Wednesday afternoon.

James M. Millett returned from the St. Barnabas Hospital, Thursday, where he had been several weeks. Richard Millett brought him home and remained for the day. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kingsley and Velma also were at the home.

A large party was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Titus, Thanksgiving Day. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Caroline Etchier, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Andrews and sons, Leonard and Stanley of South Woodstock, Rev. Eleanor B. Forbes of West Paris, Lionel Etchier, Miss Betty Sawyer of Auburn, Mrs. Sabrina Jackson of South Paris, Leroy Spiller of Norway, besides Mr. and Mrs. Titus and their children, Gertrude, Muriel, Elwood, Alva and Leroy, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Howard of Augusta and Roland Howard of Houlton were at Chas. H. Howard's for Thanksgiving.

Alton McPhetres and family of Portland were Thanksgiving guests of Rev. R. H. Colby and family. Eighteen members attending the Knights of Pythias meeting Friday evening accepted the invitation of Byron Tuttle to a social gathering at Hotel Andrews after the regular session. A four course turkey dinner was served by Mrs. Tuttle and her helpers which was responsible for appropriate remarks by Rev. R. H. Colby, who voiced the appreciation of the lodge. Some of the boys remained for several hands of sixty-three until a late hour.

Dr. and Mrs. D. M. Stewart observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage with a supper party Saturday evening. Bridge followed the supper. Mason, Mr. L. L. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Butts, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Goldsmith, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Morton spent the holiday with their daughter, Mrs. Arthur C. Soule and family at South Windham.

The Golden Key Class of the Congregational church was entertained at the home of the teacher, Mrs. Muriel Edmunds on Friday evening. Lydia Cummings and Mollie Davis were the hostesses. There were refreshments and games.

Miss Emma Tetley of Lewiston, N. H., was home for the holiday and week end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Tetley. On Thursday the family was with relatives in Freeport.

The Mason Manufacturing Co. started Monday after a shut down over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Skinner went to Boston, Sunday and returned Tuesday. Mr. Skinner was on a business trip to represent A. W. Walker & Son, of which he is superintendent.

Miss Beta Shaw was home from the Leland Powers School of Boston over Thanksgiving. She returned to school, Sunday.

Shaw's orchestra played for a crowded house at the Leland Mills Pavilion, Thanksgiving night. About eighty couples were reported at the dance there Saturday night. Stoves put in recently keep the room comfortable and a refreshment counter for warm food has made a hit.

Paris Grange will have an all day meeting, Saturday, Dec. 6. Those not solicited for the dinner will bring party.

There will be a postponed meeting of the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, Friday night, Dec. 5. The Sons are serving a supper at 6:00 o'clock on the same date.

NOVEMBER TEMPERATURE

John Wight, who keeps a daily record of temperatures the year round, submits a schedule of readings for November, taken at 6 a. m.

In spite of a remarkable season, the past month has won few blue ribbons for unusual mildness during the five-year period. With a mean of two degrees over 1929, it falls short of 1926 and '27. The mercury has danced some, but no jump greater than 20 degrees in twenty-four hours. Everything sailed on even keel from the 12th to the 27th with no abrupt changes. A fragment of the mid-west cold wave was wafted into Maine the last of the month for a taste of zero weather before the big show later.

A social hour followed the dinner with music and old time songs. Miss Beatrice Andrews was accompanist.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Littlehale; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Littlehale, two daughters and son; Marcellus Littlehale; Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Littlehale; Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Swan and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chapman and son Raymond.

The Black and White Minstrels appear in Association Hall this Thursday night with twenty entertainers. The company came from Bridgton and played here some two weeks ago. For various reasons, the entertainment was small for a show of this calibre, and a return engagement with many new features is the result. The entertainment was good and the stage setting and music were excellent. Something even better is promised this Thursday night.

Miss Helen Coburn spent the week end at her home in West Paris.

A blaze in an electric glue pot at the Macburn Novelty Co. a little before six o'clock, Friday night caused a general alarm from Box 43. There was no one at the factory at that time, but an entrance was forced and the blazing pot carried out. The excitement was soon over and no damage done.

The Congregational Ladies' Circle held the annual Christmas sale and entertainment in the vestry, Thursday and Friday, Dec. 11-12. The sale opens the first afternoon and continues into the evening. Lunch from 5 to 6 o'clock followed by a play, "Two Christmas Boxes", presented by the young girls. On Friday, supper will be served at 6:30 to be followed by the "Congo Belles" in a pleasing program.
